BUILD TODAY FOR A BETTER TOMORROW

Habitat for Humanity has been building homes in St. Johns County since 1994 when the first home was completed. Since then, Habitat has built over 30 homes: 5 in Lincolville, 1 in Hastings, and the remainder in West Augustine.

A 25-acre plot of land was donated to the affiliate in the early 90's and a total of 15 homes have been built in the development known as Hadley Village. Plans through 2010 include building 50 homes on 64 lots in West Augustine that were donated by St. Johns County for the purpose of providing affordable housing.

Each Habitat for Humanity home costs approximately $45,000 to build. Money to build homes comes from donations made by individuals, places of worship, businesses, and civic organizations. No government funds are used for the construction of homes.
